HOMEOWNER LICENSE EXEMPTION (Required when applicant is NOT a licensed contractor)

DEFINITION OF A HOMEOWNER:

Person(s) who own a parcel of land on which he/she resides or will reside, on which there is, or is intended to be, a one to three family dwelling, attached or detached structures accessory to such use and/or farm structures. A person who constructs more than one home in a two-year period shall not be considered a homeowner. Such homeowner shall submit to the Building Commissioner on this form that he/she shall be responsible for all such work performed under the building permit. As acting Construction Supervisor, your presence on the job site shall be required from time to time, during and upon completion of the work for which the permit is issued. Also be advised that with reference to GL Chapter 152 (Workers' Compensation) and Chapter 153 (Liability of Employers to Employees Laws Annotated), you may be liable for persons you hire to perform work for you under this permit. As Owner who obtains a building permit to do his/her own work, or an owner who hires an unregistered contractor (not registered in the Home Improvement Contractor (HIC) Program), will not have access to the arbitration program or guaranty fund under M.G.L. c.142A. Other important information on the HIC Program and Construction Supervisor Licensing (CSL) can be found in 780 CMR Regulation 110.R6 and 110.R5, respectively.

The undersigned certifies that he/she qualifies as a Homeowner as defined above, and assumes responsibility for compliance with the Massachusetts State Building Code, state and local zoning laws, and Massachusetts General Laws Annotated.
