Meeting Called to Order at 7:00 pm

1. David Nehring from 16 Walpole Road wants to tie-in his sugar house to the town sewer. He was in at the last meeting. (WT) spoke with the City of Northampton. Mr. Nehring will need to install a sampling spot for the sewer discharge in anticipation of possible future activities at the location. Motion made (EC) and seconded (DH) to charge $500 for the connection fee as this is a second connection on the property. Motion so voted.
2. Letter from Board of Health Chari and Fire Chief-A letter was received requesting connection at the Town Transfer Station to the town water and town sewer. Board discussed the ledge under the street that may be problematic and very expensive to blast. The connections are do able but at a high cost. The secretary will have them attend a future meeting for further discussion.
3. The Board looked over the amended sewer regulations and further amendments need to be made. Insertion of grease traps and logs need to be done.
4. Rates from other towns have been obtained. The board needs to look them over further.
5. Nothing to report about regulations on Land Use
6. Sanitary Survey went okay. The auto dialer is an issue and is being worked on.
7. A letter or postcard will be sent to all users of municipal sewer about upcoming inspections in the new year.
8. Motion made (DH) and seconded (EC) to accept and sign the warrants from 12/12/18. Motion so voted.
9. Motion made (EC) and seconded (DH) to approve the Minutes of 11/27/18 as written. Motion so voted.
10. Next meetings will be 1/8/19 and 1/22/19 at 7:00 pm.

Motion made (EC) and seconded (PK) to adjourn the meeting. Motion so voted.

Respectively submitted,
Brenda Lessard, Secretary
