Correspondence

- Complaint about visibility and trees on island near Snack Bar; passed along to Town Administrator
- *Resident complaint about police not being at station at advertised time
- *Email of appreciation about professional and respectful police response to a situation
- DOR/DLS Cherry Sheet estimates available
- DOR//DLS Alerts – new DLS Data Analytics and Resources Bureau; tax-exempt lease purchase financing agreements; local option community impact fee for short-term rentals; opinion on timeliness of abatement applications
- Email from Sen. Adam Hinds promoting the Rural Jobs Act
- *Email from Sen. Hinds about budget including rail to New York City and additional aid to schools
- *PVRTA report – Governor signed the budget and a shortfall was averted
- *KP Law is submitting briefs on cases: (1) property owner claimed that city was negligent in hiring consultant to run its water system and the water caused corrosion and damage to fixtures; KP Law is submitting an amicus brief; if any municipality wants to join at no charge, let them know. (2) MBTA planned to grant an easement to Eversource for an electric transmission line and a public rail trail; question is whether public land devoted to one public use can be changed to another inconsistent use.
