

Answers to Frequently Asked Questions for the Proposed Public Safety Building, Williamsburg, MA

Q12. Can any part of the HEJ building be used in the new building?

A. Old building materials such as bricks often cannot be reused as they deteriorate, but the question will be investigated further. At a minimum, some remembrance of the school, such as architectural components and a memorial plaque, could be used.