

Answers to Frequently Asked Questions for the Proposed Public Safety Building, Williamsburg, MA

Q19. Will the new public safety building be a metal pre-engineered building?

A. No. The current design is a traditional, wood-framed building that is meant to fit into the fabric of downtown Williamsburg. The design team is very passionate about ensuring that the building design be modest and affordable but attractive and worthy of the HEJ corner.