

Q22. What will happen to the current fire and police department buildings?

A. The existing fire and police department buildings will be put up for sale, in “as is” condition. It will be up to the buyer to either spend the money to rehab the buildings or to demolish them and build new. No costs for dealing with the existing buildings are included in the estimated costs for the new structure.